3.1.2 Wear of functional clothing items are prescribed as follows:

3.1.2.1 (Added). Stocking (Navy Watch) Cap. May be worn in the immediate work center area. Wear the sides of the cap down to cover the ears. Do not wear the cap rolled up and worn on top of the head. Wear appropriate winter outer garments when the cap is worn. When leaving the immediate work center, wear the appropriate headgear, i.e., BDU cap or flight cap.

3.1.2.2 (Added). Coveralls. Vehicle maintenance, power production, and radio personnel may wear coveralls within the immediate work area.

3.1.2.3 (Added). Flight Jacket. Authorized for wear by aircrew members only. Jacket will be zipped halfway at a minimum.

3.1.2.4. (Added). Gortex™ Parka. Wear subdued metal or cloth grade insignia, either officer or enlisted, centered on the jacket front tab when in garrison.

3.12.5. (Added). Winter Parka. Authorized during cold weather. Parka will be zipped and all buttons except for the next button will be buttoned.

3.1.2.6. (Added) Brown Sweater. May be worn underneath BDU blouse.

3.1.2.7. (Added). Reflective Tape, Jackets, and Arm Bands. Reflective tape, jacket, or arm bands will be worn during periods of darkness exercises while not in the work center.

3.1.2.8. (Added). Protective Hair/Head Coverings. These head coverings are authorized only when work is being performed which require the protection from the elements or work (i.e., paint, oil, grease, sprays, and so forth).

3.2. (Added). Flight Duty Uniform (FDU).

3.2.1. (Added). Stocking (Navy Watch) Cap. May be worn in immediate work center area. Wear the sides of the cap down to cover the ears. Do not wear the cap rolled up and worn on the top of the head. Wear appropriate winter outer garments when the cap is worn. When leaving the immediate work center, wear the appropriate headgear, i.e., BDU cap or flight cap.

3.2.2. (Added). Name Tags. Name tag material will be cloth and the person's name (not "tactical callsign"), along with appropriate aircrew qualification insignia will be sewn in white. Group and group detachment aircrew members' nametag will have a royal blue background and gold border. Squadron and squadron detachment aircrew nametags will utilize the main squadron color as the background and the secondary color as the border. Nametags will not be embroidered with aircraft/missile icons.

3.2.3. (Added). Organizational Emblems and Specialty Patches.

3.2.3.1. (Added). Right Sleeve. Non-subdued group patch.

3.2.3.2. (Added). Left Sleeve. Non-subdued squadron patch. Group staff and Detachments 2 and 3 will wear V Corps emblem patch and Detachment 1 will wear the SETAF patch.

3.3.3. (Added). Neckwear. Neckwear is required with the FDU. Neckwear is defined by the 4 ASOG/CC as either a black T-shirt or scarf. Close the FDU front zipper to within approximately 3 inches of the neckline. Wear a black T-shirt or squadron scarf (if authorized by the squadron commander) around the neck and tucked in.

3.3.4. Jungle boots are authorized with the FDU.

5.2. Subdued metal or cloth insignia will be affixed to the combat helmet during exercises and contingencies. If the flak vest is worn, officers will affix subdued metal rank insignia to the front flap of the flak vest, centered horizontally and vertically on the flap.
